The materials appearing in this list are in stock now in the sizes listed. We also have larger sizes in some of the items but we prefer to have you come to the Nursery and select these as it is expensive to ship larger plants at this time. Also, the war materials need transportation. So we are offering the small sizes—it is interesting to watch them grow—and once started they require very little care. Consult your County Agent or Agriculture Dept. of your nearest College or State regarding soil and planting conditions in your community.
